STAND UP. SPEAK UP. TIPS FOR SAFETY REPORTING

SAFE AND SOUND SCHOOLS

Stand Up

- Help everyone feel safe
- Prevent acts of threats, violence, suicide, bullying, and more
- Speed up the response by getting the report to the right people
- Simply put, you can save lives by reporting

Speak Up

- Speak with your parents, a responsible adult or favorite teacher
- Use crime report lines that are anonymous, confidential, and discreet
- Reach out to your school officials or security/safety

Join Up

- Students
- Parents
- Educators
- Administrators
- Staff
- Visitors
- Community members

What to Report

- Concerning Behaviors
- Safety and/or Security
- Bullying
- Cyberbullying
- Self-Harm or Suicidal Thoughts

- Animal Abuse
- Violence
- Disproportionate Reactions
- Theft or Vandalism
- Abuse/Sexual Abuse

Go Anonymous

Anonymous reporting removes fears of retribution, being wrong, or feeling embarrassed. It instills confidence that concerns are communicated to the right people quickly. Be a part of the solution.