

Chuck Wilson

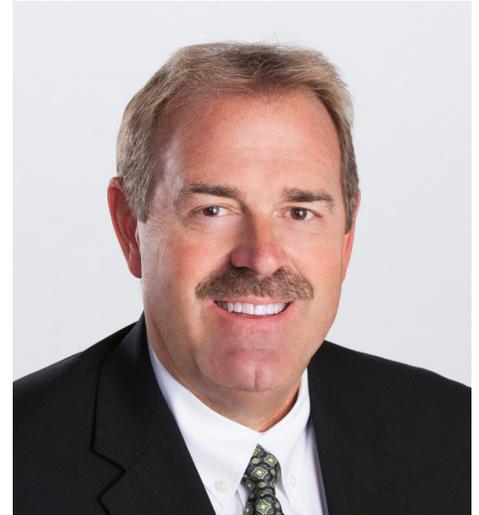

Executive Director of the National Systems Contractors Association
& Co-Founder of the Partner Alliance for Safer Schools

Chuck Wilson is the Executive Director of the National Systems Contractors Association (NSCA). NSCA is the leading not-for-profit association representing the commercial electronic systems industry. At the helm of NSCA, much of Wilson's time is spent assisting systems integrators with the challenges of today's business environment. He often gives lectures and presentations on technology innovations at key industry events, and has been published in numerous leading trade journals.

Wilson is a co-founder of the Partner Alliance for Safer Schools (PASS) and has been involved with life safety systems and emergency communications technologies for many years.

He has spent over 35 years involved in school safety as both a systems integrator and most recently heading up an association of technology solutions providers.

Wilson serves on the executive committee for ESPA (Electronic Systems Professional Alliance), was a founding partner for Integrated Systems Events, LLC, NSCA, PASS, and is an active member of the American Society of Association Executives, and the Construction Specification Institute. Wilson was the recipient of CSI's Technical Commendation Award for his work on the MasterFormat™ Expansion Task Team. Wilson joined the NSCA staff as executive director in 1996. Prior to joining NSCA, Wilson was a partner at CEC, an NSCA member and successful systems integration firm.

Hear from Chuck Wilson, along with survivors of school shootings and safety incidents, at the National Summit on School Safety, March 28-30, 2019 in Houston, Texas. This conference is presented by Safe and Sound Schools and Region 4 Education Service Center and will focus on comprehensive school safety. With deep-dive breakout sessions, hands-on workshops, leadership round tables, inspirational keynotes, and dedicated networking, attendees will add to their school safety toolbox to better meet their community's school safety needs.
